Dear Harold,

I have been flat on my back for the past week with a fever.

Have been ~~been~~ besieged by out-of-town authors and I just can't see how I will have time to do anything about your Oswald material. Besides I keep getting articles on all sides and there are announcements of endless new books on this subject. Frankly I am just not in the mood to cope with it. I wish it were not so, but I am overwhelmed with work and can't put my mind to it.

Sincerely,

Toni
